

Conjunctions and Connectives Gap Fill

Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Read each passage carefully. Fill in the blanks with suitable conjunctions or connectives from the word bank provided. Choose words that make the sentences flow logically.

Word Bank:

however, because, although, therefore, furthermore, while, consequently, meanwhile, despite, whereas, nevertheless, since

Passage 1: School Events

The school fair was scheduled for Saturday. _____, the weather forecast predicted heavy rain. The organisers decided to postpone the event _____ they didn't want students and families getting soaked. _____ this setback, everyone remained enthusiastic. The fair was rescheduled for the following weekend, _____ the sun shone brightly and everyone had a wonderful time.

Passage 2: Ecosystem Balance

Native birds play a crucial role in our ecosystem _____ they help spread seeds and control insect populations. _____ introduced predators like stoats and rats threaten their survival, conservation efforts continue. _____, several species have shown promising population increases in predator-free sanctuaries. _____ these successes, much work remains to protect our unique wildlife.

Passage 3: Study Habits

Effective study requires consistent effort. Some students prefer studying in complete silence, _____ others work best with background music. _____ your preference, finding a comfortable environment is essential. Regular breaks are important _____ they help maintain concentration. _____, reviewing material before bed can improve memory retention, _____ the brain processes information during sleep.

Passage 4: Technology and Communication

Social media has transformed how we communicate. _____ its convenience, it has some drawbacks. Face-to-face conversations allow for better understanding _____ we can read body language and tone. _____, many people now prefer texting to talking. _____, we must balance digital communication with real-world interactions to maintain meaningful relationships.