

Prepositions in Context Exercise

Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Read each passage carefully and fill in the blanks with the most suitable preposition. Choose from common prepositions such as: in, on, at, by, to, from, with, over, under, through, between, behind, above, below, during, after, before, etc.

Passage 1: The School Trip

Our class arrived _____ the museum _____ 9:30 am. We walked _____ the main entrance and gathered _____ the lobby. The guide led us _____ a long corridor and _____ a dark room filled _____ ancient artefacts. _____ the tour, we learned about Māori culture and history. We stayed _____ the museum _____ three hours before heading back _____ school.

Passage 2: A Day at the Beach

Sarah sat _____ the sand _____ her towel, watching the waves crash _____ the shore. Her brother was swimming _____ the deep water _____ his friends. Their parents relaxed _____ a large umbrella, protected _____ the hot sun. _____ lunchtime, they walked _____ the beach _____ a nearby café _____ fish and chips.

Passage 3: The Lost Book

James searched _____ his textbook everywhere. He looked _____ his desk, _____ his bed, and even _____ the rubbish bin. Finally, he found it hidden _____ a pile of papers _____ the shelf. It had been sitting there _____ the weekend, right _____ his football trophy and _____ an old photo frame.

Passage 4: Weekend Plans

_____ Saturday morning, we're driving _____ Wellington _____ visit my cousin. The journey takes about two hours _____ car. We'll stay _____ her house _____ Sunday evening. _____ our visit, we plan to walk _____ the waterfront and maybe go _____ Te Papa. We should arrive back home _____ dinner time.

Remember: Prepositions show relationships between words in a sentence, often relating to time, place, or direction.