

Vocabulary Building Cloze Passage

Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Read the passage below. Use the vocabulary words from the word bank to fill in the blanks. Each word should be used only once.

Word Bank

abundant

cautiously

glimpse

magnificent navigate

obstacle

persevered

remote

resilient transported

The Journey to Fiordland

Sarah and her family were _____ to one of the most _____ regions of New Zealand: Fiordland National Park. The landscape was absolutely _____, with towering mountains and crystal-clear lakes at every turn.

During their tramping expedition, they had to _____ through dense forest and across rocky terrain. The weather in this area was unpredictable, so they moved _____, watching each step on the slippery track.

At one point, a fallen tree blocked their path, creating an unexpected _____. However, the group _____ and found an alternative route around it. Their guide praised them for being _____ trampers who didn't give up easily.

When they reached the summit, Sarah caught a brief _____ of a rare kea before it flew away. The birdlife in Fiordland was _____, and she felt grateful to experience such natural beauty in this special part of Aotearoa.