

Relative Clauses and Pronouns

Name: _____

Date: _____

Remember: Relative pronouns connect clauses and give more information about a noun.

- who – refers to people
- which – refers to things or animals
- that – refers to people, things, or animals
- where – refers to places
- whose – shows possession

Part A: Choose the correct relative pronoun

Circle the correct relative pronoun in brackets.

1. The student (who / which) won the competition was very talented.
2. This is the book (who / that) I was telling you about.
3. The park (where / which) we played yesterday has been renovated.
4. I know a girl (whose / who) brother is a famous musician.
5. The laptop (that / who) I bought last year still works perfectly.
6. Auckland is the city (where / which) my grandparents live.

Part B: Complete the sentences

Add a suitable relative pronoun to complete each sentence.

1. The teacher _____ taught us maths has retired.
2. This is the house _____ I grew up in.
3. The dog _____ barks loudly belongs to my neighbour.
4. She has a friend _____ father works at the museum.
5. The movie _____ we watched last night was excellent.
6. I visited the library _____ they keep rare books.

Part C: Add a relative clause

Expand each sentence by adding a relative clause. Use the relative pronoun given in brackets.

1. The scientist made an important discovery. (who)

2. We visited a museum yesterday. (which)

3. She lives in a town. (where)

4. I met a boy at the party. (whose)

5. The car broke down on the motorway. (that)
