Read the story carefully:

One sunny morning, Ben went to the park with his puppy, Spot. Spot was a small brown puppy with white spots on his ears.

Ben threw a red ball and Spot ran to fetch it. Spot ran behind a big tree. Ben waited and waited, but Spot did not come back.

"Spot! Spot!" called Ben. He looked behind the tree, but Spot was not there. Ben felt worried.

Then Ben heard a little bark. He followed the sound to the playground. There was Spot, playing with two children on the slide!

Ben was so happy to find his puppy. He gave Spot a big hug. "Don't run away again!" said Ben. Spot wagged his tail.
