

Persuasive Writing: Stating Your Opinion

Name: _____

Date: _____

What is Persuasive Writing?

Persuasive writing aims to convince the reader to agree with your opinion. A strong persuasive paragraph includes:

- A clear opinion statement (your main point)
- Supporting reasons (why you believe this)
- Specific examples (evidence or details)
- A concluding sentence that reinforces your opinion

Example Opinion Statement:

"All students should have access to outdoor education programmes because they promote physical health, build confidence, and develop important life skills."

Part A: Choose Your Topic

Select ONE topic below and write your opinion statement:

- Should school uniforms be compulsory?
- Should students have homework every night?
- Should mobile phones be allowed at school?
- Should the school day start later?

My chosen topic: _____

My opinion statement:

Part B: Plan Your Reasons

List THREE reasons that support your opinion:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Part C: Write Your Persuasive Paragraph

Now write a complete persuasive paragraph on the lines below. Include your opinion statement, your three reasons with examples, and a strong conclusion.

